

Girls from poorer households are more likely to become teenage mothers than girls from wealthier households are.

Had a child or is currently pregnant, most recent value in 2008–16 (% of women ages 15–19)

Source: Household surveys (DHS, MICS). Health Nutrition and Population Statistics by Wealth Quintile (SP.MTR.1519.Q1.ZS; SP.MTR.1519.Q5.ZS).