

A legal identity ensures basic human rights and allows participation in the formal economy. But registration at birth is often unavailable to the poor.

Completeness of birth registration, 40 countries with lowest registration in poorest quintile, most recent value in 2010–16 (%)

