

Technology enables human development. In low-income countries only 12 percent of people use the Internet, but growth in access is beginning to accelerate.

Individuals using the Internet (% of population)

Source: ITU. World Development Indicators (IT.NET.USER.ZS).